

Privacy Policy

GoWelkin Network ("DimenRefactor Studios" or "GoWelkin") ("we," "us," or "our") attaches great importance to the privacy rights of its users ("users" or "you"). This Privacy Policy ("Policy") describes how we collect, store, use, and manage information, including personal information, through our websites (including gowelkin.net) ("Site"), any GoWelkin's games, and other services provided by us (collectively, the "Services").

Please note that the scope of this Policy is limited to information collected or received by GoWelkin Network through your use of the Services.

GoWelkin Network is not responsible for the actions of third parties, the content of their sites, the use of information you provide to them, or any products or services they may offer.

By using the Services, you agree to this Policy and the processing of your data, including your personal information, as described herein. If you do not agree to these terms, please do not use the Services.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, children under the age of 13 (or other age as required by local law) are not permitted to access the Services. If you are 13 or older but are considered a minor in your jurisdiction (e.g., under 18 in some jurisdictions), you must have your parent or legal guardian read this Privacy Policy with you, and you represent that you have obtained your parent's or guardian's permission to create an account or use the Services.

If you are a parent or legal guardian of a minor in your country/region, please read this Privacy Policy before allowing your child to create an account or use the Services. You agree to be bound by this Privacy Policy and be responsible for your child's activities when using the Services. You agree to supervise your child's use of the Services and ensure that your child only views content appropriate for their age.

1. How We Collect Your Personal Information

When you use the Services, we automatically collect certain information. More information on the categories and sources of information is provided below. In this Policy, "information" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable individual.

For example:

- Registration Information: such as your account name, email address, password, phone number, and information imported from connected social media accounts

(QQ, WeChat, Google Play, Discord, or LINE) to set up your profile, including your name from your social media profile, your user ID, and profile picture. In certain regions, you may also be asked to provide your date of birth (stored only on your device) to verify your age and manage the game management system.

- Identifiers and Device Information: e.g., your device type, operating system type, browser type, device ID, Internet Protocol (IP) address, and other software, including type, version, language, settings, and configuration.
- Usage Data: e.g., the website that referred you to our Site, when you use the Services and for how long, which pages and content you visited, and which features you used on the Services.
- Geolocation Data: With your consent, the Services may access precise geolocation data from your mobile device to provide features and deliver content based on your current location.
- Customer Support: If you contact us directly, we may receive additional information about you. For example, when you contact us for support, we may receive your name, email address, phone number, the contents of messages you may send us, and other information you choose to provide.

We may use SDKs and other similar technologies to collect the aforementioned information. For more information on the list of SDKs we use, please refer to "How We Share Your Information" below.

In compliance with the relevant laws, regulations, and policies issued by the National Press and Publication Administration, including the "Notice by the National Press and Publication Administration of Further Imposing Strict Administrative Measures to Prevent Minors from Becoming Addicted to Online Games" and the "Notice on the Prevention of Online Gaming Addiction in Juveniles" as well as the real-name registration requirements of relevant competent authorities, you are required to provide your name, phone number, and identification document when registering an account or using GoWelkin Network services. This type of information is considered sensitive information. Refusing to provide real-name authentication information may result in being unable to log in or subject you to corresponding restrictions during gameplay. To strengthen minor protection measures, we may, in specific circumstances, require your facial feature information for real-person verification. Refusing to provide real-person verification information may result in corresponding anti-addiction restrictions during gameplay.

According to relevant laws, regulations, and national standards, we may collect and use your personal information without obtaining your consent in the following circumstances:

1. Where it is related to national security or national defense;
2. Where it is related to public security, public health, or major public interests;

3. Where it is related to criminal investigation, prosecution, trial, and execution of judgments;
4. Where it is necessary to protect your or another individual's vital interests, such as life or property, but obtaining your consent is difficult;
5. Where you have made the information public on your own;
6. Where the information is collected from legally publicly disclosed information, such as legal news reports, government information disclosure, etc.;
7. Where it is necessary to fulfill our obligations stipulated by laws and regulations;
8. Other circumstances stipulated by laws and regulations.
9. Where it is necessary to maintain the safe and stable operation of the provided products or services, such as detecting and handling faults in the products or services.

2. How We Use Your Information

To the extent reasonably necessary, we use your information for the performance of our contract with you, based on our requested consent or legal requirements, and for our legitimate business objectives, including:

- Business Operations: Providing you with our products and services, and maintaining, optimizing, and improving our products, services, operations, and the security of the Services, including performing operational tasks such as billing, accounting, communication, and fulfilling your transactions for products and services.
- Product and Service Delivery: Tailoring content and experiences for you based on your preferences and interests.
- Marketing: Providing and personalizing your notifications, communications, newsletters, advertisements, event notifications, and activities related to GoWelkin Network and our third-party partners' products and services.
- Product Improvement, Development, and Research: Learning about you through your activities on our Services, responses to surveys, or activities on third-party websites and applications, including for troubleshooting and improving our Services; conducting market research and performing statistical, demographic, and marketing analyses of users of our Services and their purchasing patterns.
- Service Security: Detecting, investigating, and preventing unauthorized, potentially illegal activities that may violate our terms and policies, such as fraudulent activity or security breaches.

- Customer Support: Answering questions you submit to us.

3. Cookies and Similar Technologies

To measure the effectiveness of our Services, we may use cookies, which are small text files used to add functionality or track site usage. We may from time to time use cookies and/or authorize third-party tracking utilities to (a) record your IP address to determine the browsing path of users on our website and identify repeat users, (b) collect the website or source that linked or referred you to our Services, and/or (c) collect technical data about the device and software you use when accessing our Services, your device's operating system, and other similar technical data. If you do not wish to accept cookies or wish to be notified when they are placed, you can do so in your browser settings (if your browser permits).

We use cookies, web beacons, and similar technologies to personalize your experience and for various other purposes, including:

1. Remembering You: Cookies, web beacons, and similar technologies help us identify you as a registered user and retain preferences or data you have previously provided.
2. Analyzing How You Use Our Services: Cookies, web beacons, and similar technologies help us understand the activities performed by visitors (including users) on our Services, or which pages or sections are most popular.
3. Delivering Advertisements: Cookies, web beacons, and similar technologies help us deliver advertisements to you based on the data you provide, which we believe are relevant or interesting to you.
4. Other relevant functions or purposes mentioned in Part 2 of this Policy.

We or our authorized contractors may use cookies and similar technologies to provide and personalize the Services, prevent fraud, and fulfill the other purposes mentioned above. Please note that you can disable cookies in your browser settings, but if you do so, some features of our Services may not function properly.

4. How We Share Your Information

Besides GoWelkin Network, other parties may also access your personal data in the following circumstances. You acknowledge that, by providing personal data, you have foreseen such disclosure.

- Business Partners. We share information with third-party partners and service providers, including payment processing and gateway companies, platform services, game developers, game publishers, game console providers, customer support services, cloud storage and hosting providers, social media companies (who may collect information when you use or connect the Services to your social media accounts), and analytics and advertising companies, to help us provide and improve the Services and operate our business. For more information about these business partners, please contact us.

- Other Users. Your profile, including your username and picture you may provide, and information about your activities on the Services may be visible to other users of the Services or third-party websites and services. For example, your game results, scores, and profile information may be seen by other users of the Services, and users of social media websites like TapTap may also see this information if you choose to link to them.
- Legal Purposes. We may provide your information to third parties when we believe it is necessary to comply with the law or cooperate with regulatory authorities or law enforcement agencies. We may disclose your information if we believe there is an emergency situation that poses a threat to your health or safety, or that of others or the public, to protect the rights or property of GoWelkin Network, including enforcing our Terms of Service and End User License Agreement, and the rights of others.
- Corporate Transaction. If GoWelkin Network is involved in a corporate transaction, such as a merger or acquisition by another company, we may transfer your information to the successor organization in that transaction in accordance with applicable law.
- With Your Consent. We may share information for any other purpose disclosed to you at the time the information is collected or pursuant to your consent.

If you access our Services through a third-party device or platform, these third parties may be able to collect and process information about you, including information about your activities on the Services, and they may notify your contacts on the third-party service about your activities according to their own privacy policies.

5. Your Rights Regarding the Processing of Your Information

Depending on applicable laws and regulations, you, as a user of our Services, may have the following data protection rights, as well as the right to withdraw your consent. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with local authorities.

To exercise any of the following applicable rights or any other statutory data subject rights you may have under applicable laws and regulations, you can contact us using the contact information in Section 8 below.

To protect the security of your account and personal data, we may request certain additional information from you before responding to your request. In certain cases, as permitted by applicable laws and regulations, we may refuse to comply with your request. We may also charge a reasonable fee to fulfill your request in accordance with applicable law, for example, if your request is manifestly unfounded or excessive.

1. Right to Know about Personal Data Collected or Disclosed

You may have the right to access the personal data we hold about you, i.e., (i) information on whether your personal data has been collected or disclosed, (ii) the categories of your personal data that have been collected or disclosed, (iii) the categories of sources from which your personal data was collected, (iv) the business or commercial purpose for collecting or disclosing your personal data (if any); you have the right to request a copy of your personal data being processed by us, subject to submitting a verifiable request to us using the contact information in Section 8 below. If applicable, you may also exercise your right to access some of your personal data through the privacy settings provided in the Services (e.g., profile page or privacy dashboard).

2. Right to Correction

If we process your personal data, we will endeavor to take appropriate measures to ensure that your personal data is accurate and up-to-date for the purposes for which it was collected. If your personal data is inaccurate or incomplete, you have the right to request the correction of your inaccurate personal data in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, and you can modify the information in the Services' privacy settings (if available).

3. Right to Request Deletion of Personal Data

You have the right to request the deletion of your personal data if the reasons mentioned in Article 2 of this Privacy Policy no longer exist, or if there is other legal basis for deleting your personal data. Please communicate with us via the detailed contact information below.

You acknowledge and agree that after deleting your account, you will not be able to access game-related services, including account information, subscriptions, and game-related information associated with that account, and you will not be able to access other services through that account.

4. Right to Opt Out of Marketing Communications

You can exercise this right by clicking the "unsubscribe" or "opt-out" link in the marketing messages we send you.

5. Right to Complain

You may have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection authority about our collection and use of your personal information. For more information, please contact your local data protection authority (if applicable).

6. Right to Withdraw Consent

If we collect and process your personal data based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent in accordance with applicable law. Withdrawing your consent will not affect the lawfulness of any processing we conducted prior to your withdrawal, nor will it affect the processing of your personal data based on lawful processing grounds other than consent. In many cases, we need to use your personal data to provide you with the services you request. If you do not provide us with the required personal data, or if you withdraw your consent for us to use and/or disclose your personal data for these purposes, we may not be able to continue providing the Services to you or provide you with the services you need.

1. How We Store and Transfer Your Information

6. How We Store and Transfer Your Information

We guarantee that personal information collected and generated by us within the People's Republic of China will be stored within the People's Republic of China. We will not transfer your personal information outside of China without your express authorization, explicit provisions of laws and regulations, and/or requirements from relevant authorities. We will store your information securely, including local storage (using the APP for data caching), databases, and server logs. If cross-border transfer is required, we will conduct a security assessment in accordance with the requirements of laws and regulations. If data needs to be transferred outside the country, we will inform you of the purpose, scope, content, recipient, and the country or region where the recipient is located for the data transfer and obtain your consent. Additionally, we will not sell your personal data.

7. How Long We Retain Your Information

We guarantee that we will only store your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes of the Services or under the conditions and time limits stipulated by laws and regulations. After the aforementioned storage period expires, we will delete or anonymize your personal information. This does not apply where you exercise your right to deletion, cancel your account, or if otherwise provided by laws and regulations (for example: the E-Commerce Law of the People's Republic of China stipulates that product and service information and transaction information must be kept for no less than three years from the date of transaction completion).

8. How to Contact Us

If you have any requests, concerns, or questions about us, this Privacy Policy, or how we handle your personal data, or if you wish to file any complaint or exercise your data subject rights, please contact us as soon as possible by email:

support@gowelkin.net

We will notify you when we update this Policy. We recommend that you periodically review this Policy to stay informed about our privacy practices.
